

Bartek Grzanek, Favorite Son

You brought me here
Into this world
I heard you're laughing
When you left me alone
My favorite sky, you can't deny
I you favorite son

Despite my fears
Whole of my faults
I was fighting for nothing
But you took the crown
You see all lies
You ultimately lie
I still you favorite son

And I just can't keep up
And I just can't go on
Nobody follows my heart
Nobody follows my soul
fools my soul

You brought me here
But no need to go
I was so lone
And the .. was born
From the heart of this land
From the heavy snow
No we just let it go

Nothing could ever make sense
Time still still
And gives me a chance
There's like dust to dust
Ashes to ashes
Earth to Earth
Time's going down
Dawn And frames
And I just can not give up
And I just can not go on
Nobody follows my heart
Nobody follows my souls
