Bartek Grzanek, Favorite Son

You brought me here
Into this world
I heard you're laughing
When you left me alone
My favorite sky, you can't deny
I you favorite son

Despite my fears
Whole of my faults
I was fighting for nothing
But you took the crown
You see all lies
You ultimately lie
I still you favorite son

And I just can't keep up And I just can't go on Nobody follows my heart Nobody follows my soul fools my soul

You brought me here
But no need to go
I was so lone
And the .. was born
From the heart of this land
From the heavy snow
No we just let it go

Nothing could ever make sense Time still still And gives me a chance There's like dust to dust Ashes to ashes Earth to Earth Time's going down Dawn And frames And I just can not give up And I just can not go on Nobody follows my heart Nobody follows my souls
