

Bea Miller, I can't breathe

Somebody get me a hammer
Wanna break all the clocks
And the mirrors
And go back to a time
That was different

A time when I didn't feel like there was Something missing
Now my body and mind are so distant
Don't know how to Escape from this prison

How Can I free my mind?

Cause
I can't breathe /5x

How can I live in the moment
When my thoughts never feel like my own
And don't know how to admit that
I'm broke

How can I be alright?

Cause
