

BEAST IN BLACK, Die By The Blade

In total absence of light
We meet again
Equal in strength
My nemesis, my only friend

Abysmal oceans roar
With immortal hate
Imbued with blistering rage
You will ride the wave

Fight until you
Die by the blade of the one you hate
End of reason
End of the game
Die by the blade of the one you love to hate
With all your heart

Eviscerated soul
Maimed sanity
All sacrificed
To the eclipsed reality

The abhorrent beast
Has revealed its ugly face
You can smash all the mirrors
But there's only one true escape

Fight until you
Die by the blade of the one you hate
End of reason
End of the game
Die by the blade of the one you love to hate
With all your heart

Fight until you
Die by the blade of the one you hate
End of reason
End of the game
Die by the blade of the one you love to hate
With all your heart

Fight until you
Die by the blade of the one you hate
End of reason
End of the game
Die by the blade of the one you love to hate
With all your heart
Spill the vengeful blood
Screaming in the dark
