

Bebe Rexha, Die A Little

(mmm yeah yeah
oh da da di da, da da da)

I can see 'em come down my eyes, so I gotta make this my own cry can see 'em coming down my eyes

I've been up, I've been down, I've been feeling low Trying to figure out a place in this world
Reaching out for someone to hold my hand, but I got nobody
Just wanna love somebody
I guess a little hurt never hurt nobody
ay yeah eh eh, yeah eh eh

I've been black, I've been yellow
Sad like a fellow
This wretched heart of mine, it's been low for a long long time
Never got nobody, just wanna love somebody
You know a little hurt never hurt nobody
ay yeah eh

Sometimes you gotta die a little
To know what it feels like to be alive
Oh baby, won't you cry a little?
Cuz after the rain, the sun gonna shine, the sun gonna shine

I've been hot, I've been cold like the winter snow
Rollercoaster ride from low
When life tried to knock me off my toes, yeah I get right back up
And then I dust myself off
I guess a little hurt never hurt nobody
ay yeah eh eh, yeah eh eh

In a world full of sinners, losers and winners
I'm just trying to bury the blow
When life tries to bloody my nose, yeah I get right back up
And then I dust myself off
You know a little hurt never hurt nobody
ay yeah eh

Sometimes you gotta die a little
To know what it feels like to be alive
Oh baby, won't you cry a little?
Cuz after the rain, the sun gonna shine, the sun gonna shine

(ooh ooh ooh...)

Cuz after the rain, the sun gonna shine, the sun gonna shine

All the pain, all the struggles, world full of troubles
They will never bring me down, down, down
Baby I'm a fighter, I'm the igniter
Gonna light up this whole town, town, town (yeah)

Sometimes you gotta die a little
To know what it feels like to be alive
Oh baby, won't you cry a little?
Cuz after the rain, the sun gonna shine, the sun gonna shine

Cuz after the rain, the sun gonna shine, the sun gonna shine□
