

Ben Folds, Anne Waits

and so
annie waits annie waits annie waits
for a call
from a friend
the same
it's the same, why's it always the same?
annie waits
for the last time
the clock never stops never stops never waits she's growin' old
it's gettin' late and so he forgot he forgot maybe not maybe he's been seriously hurt would that be worse?
headlights crest the hill
shadows pass her by and out of sight hoo hoo
annie sees in dreams
friday bingo, pigeons in the park annie waits for the last time just the same as the last time annie says,
you see?
this is why i'd rather be
alone
and so
for a call
from a friend
the same
it's the same
why's it always the same?
as the last
who will be the one forever more
hoo hoo
annie i could be if we're both still lonely when we're old
annie waits
but not for me
