

Ben Folds Five, Twin Falls

Christmas twin falls
Idaho's her oldest memory
She was only two
It's the first time she felt blue
Cafeteria, Harrison, elementary
Beneath the parachute
Saw her without shoes
7-up I touched her thumb
And she knew it was me
Although she couldn't see
Unless of course she peeked
My mom's good
She got me out of twin falls, Idaho
Before I got to old
Well you know how that goes
That's where she still was [Incomprehensible]
She turned 17, 1983, three weeks after me
So last I heard, she had twins
Or maybe it was three
And though I'll never see
That don't bother me
