

Ben Folds, Give Judy My Notice (Early Version)

Judy
Could anyone be loved anymore than I love you?
does it hurt you too?

but Judy
I've been feeling small too long I love you so but something's wrong

Cause I come running when you want me here and when you want me to, I disappear give Judy, my notice

I knew if I made it easy for you you'd settle for me, yeah eventually

But Judy,
I can't be myself anymore
it's way too hard being loved by default

And I can't do this any longer the vacuum left is so much stronger
Judy

Judy you know I'm not mad anymore at least most of the time but it could take a while I've been living just to see you smile every once in a while

Tears fall
but that don't mean nothing at all Just cause I said it first yeah that's why it hurts ya

And Judy,
I won't be your bitch anymore
and follow you 'round and hold the door

And I'm not sorry if you're not sorry too and you're not sorry till I make you

Judy
