

Beyoncé, OTHERSIDE

if the storm comes
if we burn up
if the wells run dry
to believe in another life

if it all ends
and it's over
if the sky falls fire
best believe me
you will see me
on the other side

if we wake up
lose our patience
or even lose our lives
i'll feel lucky
to say that you've been a friend of mine

you will see me
on the other side
