

Big Day, Someone

Someone is calling himself through the air
Someone is running in heaven through the earth
No-one tells about this side
No-one knows who's someone
Someone is ahead of once time
Someone is crumbling in the air before me
No-one goes with me
No-one knows who's someone
Someone is parting minds in the dream
Someone is running in this dreams
No-one knows substance of words
No-one knows who's someone
