Big Head Todd And The Monsters, Gary Indiana

Turning like a hurricane Sleep inside this junkyard train It's cold and I'm loosing my covers She won't take me any further south, than Gary Indiana (blues), I never learned the easy out Cracklin' chain and silver spoon I shot a man for stealing food He got caught with his gun on the table Mother quit your cryin' now Think of the sisters and brothers who never learned the easy out Dancing to the midnight moon Snowflake in my whisky too Hear a knock on the door and some screaming The eviction man is in town Here's to the sisters and brothers, who never learned the easy out
