

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, Jet

I'm changing now the wind is at my back
And I'm so ready to go
And I cannot sleep tonight for tomorrow
Ain't gonna get to you tonight
Like a wild jet plane you rise
Forgiven

See that your time wasn't a waste
Don't you let her leave you tonight,
You know she can't be sorry for affectionate lies
She's so sweet for her crimes
Like a wild jet plane, she flies
Forgiven

Now you'll never catch me looking back,
Though I've still a long way to go
Don't you count on me tonight
You need to find your own way home tonight
Like a sinking ship, dive
Like a wild jet plane arising
Forgiven
