

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, True Lady

True Lady over the ocean blue
Found another I'm imagining
And as I sail into this distance
Keeping in my heart your face
Keeping in my heart your face

True Lady over the sea
Beauty as I have never known
Has it faded in the years
For someone else to behold
for someone else to behold?

True lady in your mansion high
With many lovers to wait on you
Has your memory of me died
Am I just blowing in the wind
Am I just blowing in the wind?
