

Billy Idol, New future weapon

With a 180 miles
you can press my button to see faster than the night fire
I can make you bleed
On stealth and undercover you don't even know I'm there I can kill all of you better beware .
It's the dawn of a new future weapon
I'm after your soul
I'm after your soul
It's surprise speed and violence of action
I'm at the controls
death at the controls .
Higher than a mile my weaponology
I can take you out babe with pinpoint accuracy riding in the raptor danger to the max shoot you if you're flying by the power of my attack .
It's the dawn of a new future weapon
I'm after your soul
I'm after your soul
It's surprise speed and violence of action
I'm at the controls
death at the controls.
Living in this desert, living in slime the air you breath is poisonous fire the sounds you hear destroy the tune the sounds you hear destroy the... "wow yeah"
With a 180 miles
you can press my button to see
faster than the night fire
I can make you bleed.
It's the dawn of a new future weapon
I'm after your soul

It's surprise speed and violence of action
well I'm at the controls
death at the controls.
I'm at the controls
I'm after your soul "yeah"
"Oh ye'eah"
