

Bloody Mess, Last Glimmer

When the last glimmer
Sinks in the horizon
A putrid ooze begins to seep
The wound it festers
And none are any wiser
To why this cut has reached so deep

Hunger! Devour all
Pick my skin from bone
Make me immortal
And dead within my skull

So homicidal
And yet I give you life
You taste like future
With every single bite

You cannot fight me
When there's so much of me
Join my Necrocracy

When the last glimmer
Sinks in the horizon
The shine it finally gets to feed
Beyond the wreckage
Our hope relies on
Feeding us to our

Greed! Devour all
We stand too small to fall
We pivot masses
To twitch on our call

So genocidal
And yet, there's peace in death
And there is order on earth

So heed, heed my call
This is a free-for-all
No one will break this fall
This is a free-for-all

And lose all your hope
When there's no way to cope
All that remains is rope
When there's no way to cope
