

Blur, High Cool

When you come here
Which sometimes do
Don't think that
I really want you to
And if you come here
Which you always do
Don't think that
I expect you to

Is that all I give you
Is that all I give you

And you talk too much
Which you always do
Don't think that
I really want you to
And if you talk too much
Which you always do
Don't think that
I really need you to

Is that all I give you
Is that all I give you
