Blur, I'm All Over

I always knew that there would be someone somewhere

Who had it in for me

I always knew that there would be no-one nowhere

Who was anything like me

I'm all over

All over

All over

I'm the only one

I'm hanging around

Going nowhere

Waiting for it to happen to me

I always knew that there would be no-one nowhere

Who was anything like me

I'm all over

All over

All over

You're the only one

I always knew that there would be someone somewhere

Who had it in for me

I always knew that there would be no-one nowhere

Who was anything like me

I'm all over

All over

All over

You're the only one
