

Bon Jovi, Born Again Tomorrow

Born Again Tomorrow
Born Again Tomorrow

This ain't a test, that's what you wanted
Ain't gonna say the sky is falling
You gotta read between the lines
Stop waiting for a sign
Who's gonna live your life?
Yes, you don't have to look back to see where we are!
The future's looking brighter than a handful of stars
You gotta hold on, hold on, be strong!

If you were born again tomorrow,
Would you live your life like yesterday?
If you were born again tomorrow,
I wouldn't live my life any other way!

Don't have to end up where you started
Heaven loves the brokenhearted
You learn from your mistakes
Bones grow stronger where they break
Who said the scars don't fade?
Yes, you don't have to look back to see where we are
The future's looking brighter than a handful of stars
You gotta hold on, hold on, you gotta be strong

If you were born again tomorrow,
Would you live your life like yesterday?
If you were born again tomorrow,
I wouldn't live my life any other way!

Would you relive every moment?
Would you tear out any page?
If you were born again tomorrow,
I wouldn't live my life any other way
Any other way, hey, hey, any other way, hey, hey

If you were born again tomorrow,
Would you live your life like yesterday?
If you were born again tomorrow,
I wouldn't live my life any other way

Would you relive every moment?
Would you tear out any page?
If you were born again tomorrow,
I wouldn't live my life any other way!

Any other way
Born again tomorrow!
If you were born again tomorrow
Born again tomorrow!
