Boney M., Homeland Africa

Ship ahoi ship ahoi

Down the ocean a ship comes sailing through the waves Filled with hundreds of men they take as slaves Just long for their true homeland africa And to be saved they want to be free Men women and babyslaves Coming to the land of liberty, liberty

Ship ahoi ship ahoi ship ahoi...

They are tired of waiting for a brand new day Some of them sing and chant some of them pray And some men got a little tired too No one knows if the journey pay Men women and babyslaves Coming to the land of liberty, liberty Ship ahoi ship ahoi ship ahoi...
