

Boney M., Strange

Strange, how you stopped loving me!
How you stopped needing me!
When you came along, oh how strange!

Strange, how you stopped loving me!
How you stopped needing me!
When you came along, oh how strange!

Strange, you change like night and day
Just stopped and walked away
When you came along, oh how strange!

Well I guess that I was meant to be
A puppet on a string
To think I found you really love me
Look what love can bring

Strange, you're still in all my dreams
Oh what a foolish me
I still care for you, oh how strange!

How strange!

Well I guess that I was meant to be
A puppet on a string
To think I found you really love me
Look what love can bring

Strange, how you stopped loving me!
How you stopped needing me!
When you came along, oh how strange!

Strange, you change like night and day
Just stopped and walked away
When you came along, oh how strange!

Strange, you're still in all my dreams
Oh what a foolish me
I still care for you, oh how strange!

Well I guess that I was meant to be
A puppet on a string
To think I found you really love me
Look what love can bring

Strange, you're still in all my dreams
Oh what a foolish me
I still care for you, oh how strange!

Strange, how you stopped loving me!
How you stopped needing me!
When you came along, oh how strange!

Strange, you're still in all my dreams
Oh what a foolish me
I still care for you, oh...
