

Born Of Osiris, Torchbearer

This is the last time I'll remind you
These lies, kept inside have now become truth
Exiled, you'll fade out compromised
In time, you'll realize the world will take
The world will take what it wants from you
Keep pushing on and on.

I'm wading in the moonlight
Six days awake along empty roads
I'm begging for a sunrise
Torchbearer carry me home
Im waiting in the dark night
Won't stop repeat til your eyes have shown
Rejuvenate the bright light
Torchbearer carry me home

Move along
Just make your point
Move along
You've laid here long enough now
Captured whole
Tortured soul
Been locked up enough now
Shadows form
Dreams reborn
Can I lay it all down

I'm wading in the moonlight
Six days awake along empty roads
I'm begging for a sunrise
Torchbearer carry me home
Im waiting in the dark night
Won't stop repeat til your eyes have shown
Rejuvenate the bright light
Torchbearer carry me home

I'm paralyzed by the things that you told me
You analyzed, looked inside, terrified by the view
I'm petrified by the words you said you took the offense
I shake inside by the grip you've tied so in my defense
I'll crucify you
I'll crucify you
