

BoyWithUke, Lovely

We kissed under the stars so far away
We could see Mars
I felt like maybe it was now I had a purpose
You held me close
Said it was cold
I said I know
I told you
I was nervous

And you will always be
So flawed and imperfect
But I can only see
Your eyes

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
I'd like to hold your hand
While I see you smile
Lovely that I get to hold it
For a while

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
I'd like to hold your hand
While I see you smile
Lovely that I get to hold it
For a while

It was so cold
Gave you my coat
You looked at me
Like I was such a Cretin
And I was
But I don't regret it
Yea I cannot stress it enough

So cold
It was so cold
I think that's why I always feel cold
So cold
It was so cold
I guess that's why my songs say I'm cold

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
I'd like to hold your hand
For a while

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
For a while

Fifty-two weeks, lovely
Can't believe you're with me
We're pretty good at this
Lasted till near Christmas
Fortunately I still think you're

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
For a while

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
For a while

Lovely like a fire in the sky
I don't care
Your eyes are like a jar of fireflies
Summer air
For a while
