

Britney Spears, Where's My Baby? A Novelty Song

Sooooooooo...I got on the bus I looked for a seat but I couldn't find no place to sit I had a chat with a older man about 25 years older than me We began to touch each other
We wanted to explore our bodies and bring up the heat He ripped off my top fondled my breasts and i just couldn't take anymore of this I reared back to knock him out but he grabbed me and stuck his (beep) in my mouth He raped me so gently and I decided I was gonna be a ho for one day...I am a girl and girls just want some love...doesn't...ma-a-a-ter cause I'll never ever see him again...yeah Well a month later
I took a test
and it said that i was impregnant I looked for the man who penetrated me but he was nowhere to be found ch-ch-ch-...whispers: nine months later-er-errrr....
I laid on my back my belly shot right back and my very own child slipped right out there was lots of blood and my body hurt but my child was right there and ill never forget my bay-bay..oh noooo... where's my child? where's my child? uh-huh!!!! ooooooh... yeah (chuckles)
