

Bruce Dickinson, Eternity Has Failed

Bruce Dickinson prezentuje utwór "Eternity Has Failed" z płyty "The Mandrake Project" (premiera 1

Here is the soul of a man
Here in This place for the taking
Clothen in white
Stand in the light
Here is the soul of a man

Time to speak with the shaman again
Conjure the jester again
Black Dog in the ruins
Is howling my name
So here is the soul of a man

When the world was virgin
Before the coming of men
Just a solar witness
The beginning of the end
From a world of magma
To a cold rockface
The ascent of madness
And a human race

There are strange believers in all of us
There are stranger truths
Immortal lust
The dark redeemer... He takes your hand
You sign the contract
And lose your mind...
Lose your mind

Reef in the sail
At the edge of the world
'Cos Eternity Has Failed
You were waiting in line
For the ending of time
But Eternity Has Failed
We are building a bridge
So you people can live
'Cos Eternity Has Failed
Just a matter of time
For my partner in crime
And Eternity Has Failed

Reef in your sails
At the edge of the world
'Cos Eternity Has Failed
You were waiting in line
For the ending of time
But Eternity Has Failed
We are building a bridge
So you people can live

Just a matter of time
We were waiting in line

Eternity Has Failed

Good day, my name is Necropolis
I am formed of the dead
