

Bruce Dickinson, Laughing in the hiding bush

There's a sinister game that children play...Hey...Hey
When they get to the end of each schoolday...Hey...Hey
They spend their lives getting ready for the kill...

CHORUS:

Laughing in the hiding bush
The joker is back
Laughing in the hiding bush
The joker is back
Who remembers the names of fallen heroes aha aha?
Who remembers today
to fly their flag?
I couldn't say I loved you like
I did before...Ha!
Laughing in the hiding bush
The joker is back
Laughing in the hiding bush
It's the laughing attack
The joker is back
He's wild in the pack
The joker is back
Laughing in the hiding...
gonna kick him in the bush, yeah

SOLO

REPEAT CHORUS (x2)
