

Bruce Springsteen, I'll Stand By You

you waked me in the night our tears are fallin' down come let me drown and feel I wish I could tell the story see all ghost
you 've got inside you

come take my hand till the morning comes just close tyour eyes

I'll Stand By You always
always, always,
always, always,
