

Bruce Springsteen, Let's Go

I hear the guitars ringing out
Ringing out down union street
I hear the lead singer shouting out yeah
I wanna be a slave to the beat
Yeah, I want something that'll break my chains
Something to break my heart
Something to shake my brains
Little rocker ? ? ? ? ? around (on? ) tonight (delight? )
So meet me on down
Meet me on down

I wanna be where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are

I...wanna.....be
I...wanna.....be
I...wanna.....be
Where the bands are
Where the bands are
I...wanna.....be
Where the bands are
I wanna start a new life

We left our home in the hillside (? )
We left back family and our friends (? )
We came down here to ...
To start all over again
We left when the fields were ...

...

I wanna start a new life
I wanna start a new life
I wanna ... forget about the man that I used to be
