

bryska, Look At Us

A thousand things to say
Were lost in the silence, wait
Who's gonna take the blame
Yeah, I need you all the time
I wish I was good enough

Stuck in reverse
We don't doubt it is all over
Look at us, look at us now
Look at us, look at us now

Words can be a little blurry
When you hide them in the dark
I can only see your shadow
I wanna hold you and everything stops
Maybe we'll find the reason
Maybe when the time is right
We can meet the expectation
Look at, look at, look at us now

A thousand things to say
Were lost in the silence, wait
Who's gonna take the blame
Yeah, I need you all the time
I wish I was good enough

Stuck in reverse
We don't doubt it is all over
Look at us, look at us now
Look at us, look at us now

Words can be a little blurry
When you hide them in the dark
I can only see your shadow
I wanna hold you and everything stops
Maybe we'll find the reason
Maybe when the time is right
We can meet the expectation
Look at, look at, look at us now
