

Buck-O-Nine, On A Mission

i want to rise from my seat dont want to be held down i want to get off the couch i want to find a new sound i want to step outside i want to say im alive
im on a mission, im on a mission courtesy of a condition my condition, my condition is something that you cant see im just looking for a better way im on this mission because of my condition and its the only thing i can see dont want to try hard to be something just want to let it come naturally i can only see one thing and thats a bright future for me cause youre my friends i hope you'll never think again about my intentions on this stage its not just what i say but its what i believe and now the only thing i now is get up & go and find my destiny
ive got a vision, ive got a vision of all the things we can do together
