

Buck-O-Nine, She's Fat

she's fat, she's a slut she told me i had a cut butt right away i fell for her she made me feel so secure i don't mind her being all that i don't mind her being fat but she told me a big white lie how could i look her in the eye she told me that she loved me was it just a lie?

now she's with someone else she waved me goodbye

now that time has passed i can't see to get her off my mind they say the pain will go away it's just a matter of time
