

Building 429, Empty

I know what lives inside
When I hide far behind
The eyes that are so bright
Wanting our worlds to coincide
I know how much it costs
To fall prey, to be one lost
But I'll give my heart wholly
Even if I fall to the lies

I'll find peace with you again
When I'm holding out my sinful hands
Delivered and captured again
Though I was living like an empty man
You're washing me, while you're leading me home again

I know the soul of me
And everything that tempts me
So I guard my heart closely
I won't be falling for the lies

Cause I found peace with you again
When I was holding out my sinful hands
Delivered and captured again
Though I was living like an empty man
You're still teaching me, as your leading me to the end

But the world
Would love me to believe
That it revolves around me
I can finally see
That the world
Would love to captivate
A childlike heart that aches
To fill the empty space

But I've found peace with you again
Though I'm holding out my sinful hands
Delivered and captured again
Though I was living like an empty man
You'll be washing me, as you're leading me to the end