

CALL THE SUN, Waste My Time

You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time

Drifting with the wave
Don't talk, come in, man
Falling in myself
And all the colours
Won't come back for night
I am invisible, man
No matter what
I'll start again

You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
You waste my time
