

Carlos Lyra, Song Duet (Valsa Dueto)

Listen, now my love
And hear the voice
That comes from solitude
Everything is hushed
The moon rejoices
With passion and quietude
Come, the night is fair
I want to see within your eyes
The morning star
Go shining by
Heavens of love
Come, look at the sky
So vast and far, tonight
With this moonlight
So full of peace
So full of spells
When you've had your fill
And charms all cease
Oh, love!
Come into my arms

Listen, now my love
And hear the voice
That comes from solitude
Everything is hushed
The moon rejoices
With passion and quietude
Come, the night is fair
I want to see within your eyes
The morning star
Go shining by
Heavens of love, oh! Come
Come, look at the sky
So vast and far, tonight
With this moonlight
So full of spells
