

Carmell, Faces

Glowy faces
Dreams I can't recall
Lazy days with
Breeze we can't ignore
Call me baby
Maybe I'm not sure
Look, I promise
Read my lips again

Waking up in the morning light
Fight mode on in my heart
Why do we break each other's hearts
I scream from the top of my lungs

As we lie in the moment
We're oh so ready to run
Same old souls shining on us
As we drunk drive into the dark

Memories of us
Turned to stone again
Long ago thrown into blueish greens
Sugar coated fantasy of love
Golden stardust never left the scene

As we lie in the moment
We're oh so ready to run
Same old souls shining on us
As we drunk drive into the dark

Wake me up when I'm ready
When the angels sing to my ear
The new songs in A-minor
They are waiting for me to hear
