

Cats On Trees, Full Colours

There are some situations
Sometimes you have to face yourself
And focus on a new bay
You have to draw some new lines
And paint until the end
A white page for a new day
The colours are the rhymes
You sing poems in your paintings
A new time for a new life
I knew you'd come along

Rainbow and I'm the other
Rainbows and I'm the other day
I rose, I stand, I turn into

Rainbow unlike the other
Rainbows unlike the other days
I rose, I stared, I turn into a man

You transcend us on your way
And knocking on her tummy telling me
You come to change me
Ain't over, it's not over
I'll remember the day

Rainbow unlike the other
Rainbows unlike the other days
I rose, I stared, I turn into a man

Life's kind of funny sometimes
Life seems scary sometimes
Life's kind of funny sometimes

And today when I woke up

Rainbow unlike the other
Rainbows unlike the other days
I rose, I stared, I turn into a man
