Cee-Lo Green, Who Cares?

Basically, I'm complicated I have a hard time taking the easy way I wouldn't call it schizophrenia But I'll be at least two people today

If that's okay

And I could go on and on and on (But who cares?)

It's deep how you can be so shallow And I'm afraid 'cause I have no fear And I didn't believe in magic Until I watched you disappear

I wish you were here

And I could go on and on and on (But who cares?)

You see? Everybody is somebody But nobody wants to be themselves And if I ever wanted to understand you I'd have to talk to someone else

'Cause every little bit helps

And I could go on and on and on (But who cares?)

It feels like
The surreal life
But it's still nice
Wish I could live twice
And I still might
If these wounds heal right
I see a little light
Even though it's still night

But it's still nice
Wish I could live twice
And I still might
If these wounds heal right
I see a little light
