

Central Cee, Dun Deal

You coulda done what I done but you ain't on what I'm on
In the trap tryna double it up but you ain't on what I'm on Cench don't post too much 'cause I don't want them to know what I'm on
On my page tryna see what I make but I can't let them know how much dough that I got

Bro controlling the wok, soda in the pot, lock make the yola rock
Belling the phone nonstop, back then I was hitting the olders' shots
Tb on the phone to the holder, patterning up cah the dough just dropped
Bros in the can, just swapped the Rice Krispy for his Coco Pops
The show goes on, you can lock that lock but the clock don't stop
Bad mind bres on the block, hoping the song that I dropped don't pop
Fuck the jewels you rock, I need the same watch that Stormzy's got Cees broke, surely not, I got mo stack like the Hornsey lot

You-you coulda done what I done but you ain't on what I'm on
In the trap tryna double it up but you ain't on what I'm on Cench don't post too much 'cause I don't want them to know what I'm on
On my page tryna see what I make but I can't let them know how much dough that I got

Bad mind bres on the block hoping the seats at my show don't sell
Hope that I don't excel, they want me out in the cold as well
I'm sick of the trap and watching my back and praying I don't go jail
You know how much blow we sold, it's about time they let me blow
Used to catch the 52 bus back when we got shanks from the army shop
You think that you're smart but you're not, judging a man by the car he got
The door just knocked, my heartbeat dropped, I know federalis watch
Free all of my dargies locked, doing man up with a sardine sock

You coulda done what I done but you ain't on what I'm on
In the trap tryna double it up but you ain't on what I'm on Cench don't post too much 'cause I don't want them to know what I'm on

I'm beefing the devil himself 'cause I don't wanna sell my soul
I don't wanna speak on the phone if it ain't making me dough
Just got a new high score, just hit 3 in a row
I don't wanna meet any hoes, I just wanna be in my zone
Million streams, I'm independent, I have to let that be known
Live your movie, it's in the pendant, I link Vilani for the VV stones
She getting horny when she see these stones
It used to be hand-me-downs
I shop in uptown when I need new clothes

You coulda done what I done but you ain't on what I'm on
In the trap tryna double it up but you ain't on what I'm on Cench don't post too much 'cause I don't want them to know what I'm on
