

Chantal Kreviazuk, Morning Light

Hold me to nothing
No truth, no lies
I have not a need
I do have desire
I love a little loving with the morning light
A little reminder that it's alright
It's alright
Help me see my dreams
To the end from the start
Embrace all my being
Don't stifle my heart
I love a little loving with the morning light
A little reminder that it's alright
It's all right
Hold me to nothing
No truth, no lies
I have not a need
I do have desire
I love a little loving with the morning light
A little reminder that it's alright
It's alright
Ooooooh I love a little loving with the morning light
A little reminder that its alright
It's alright.
