

Charli XCX, Backseat (feat. Carly Rae Jepsen)

i can't escape all the voices and so I turn it up I go to Parties with strangers so I can figure it out Run through a city at midnight to feel like a star
I want it all, even, it's fake

Breaking your heart, split in half
told you it all
year and a half, are we in love?
I'll never know
I know I am wrong
what a mistake
don't ever change
I can't escape all the voices, and so, I turn it up

In the basket
your song, so loud
drivin' so fast
I'm better off alone

all alone /20x

I'm wide awake, lying next to him and feel it all I got a thirst for distraction that I can't take back My fingers run through his hair
I'm gripping at regrets
I put my mouth In his lips to taste

Breaking your heart, split in half
told you it all
year and a half, are we in love?
I'll never know
I know I am wrong
what a mistake
don't ever change
I can't escape all the voices, and so, I turn it up

In the basket
your song, so loud
drivin' so fast
I'm better off alone

all alone /20x

wake lying next I'm wide away laying next /3x take back, I got tacked back /3x my fingers run through his hair /4x

all alone /20x

It's Charli, baby /2x
