

Charlie Puth, Change (feat. James Taylor)

why are we looking down on our sister and brothers? isn't love, all that we got?
don't we know everybody's got a father and mother the day we know we're all the same together we can make that change look around there are too many of us crying and not enough love to go around what a waste, another day another good one dying but I know that the world will change

the day we know we're all the same

why can't we just get along?
if loving one another's wrong then how are we supposed to
get close to each other?
we gotta make that change
why can't we just get along?

what a waste would be to deny somebody of a chance to be theirselves what a waste would be if we hurt for nothing but I know that the world can change
the day we know we're all the same

why can't we just get along?
if loving one another's wrong
then how are we supposed to
get close to each other?
we gotta make that change
why can't we just get along?

I know we could break apart we don't have to go that way

why can't we just get along?
if loving one another's wrong
then how are we supposed to
get close to each other?
we gotta make that change
why can't we just get along?
why can't we just get along?
if loving one another's wrong
then how are we supposed to
get close to each other?
we gotta make that change
the change!
