

Charlotte Lawrence, Joke's On You (piosenka z filmu Ptaki Nocy)

Drag me to death, like a lit cigarette
Took my last breath, like the smoke from my lips
I've lied for you and I liked it too
But my knees are bruised from kneeling to you

I've had enough, but you're too hard to quit
We've had our fun, now your sugar makes me sick
I've lied for you and I liked it too
But my makeup's ruined

And now I'm laughing through my tears
I'm crying through my fear
But, baby, if I had to choose

The joke's on you
The joke's on you

God knows I've tried to be kind
But I won't just lay down and die
Wearing a fake smile
The joke's on you

My heart's gone bad, now it won't beat for you
You had your laugh, now I won't play the fool
I've lied for you and I liked it too
But I'm black and blue from bleeding for you

You struck the match, burned me out so fast
Look what we had, now it's turned to ash
I've lied for you and I liked it too
But my makeup's ruined

And now I'm laughing through my tears
I'm crying through my fear
But, baby, if I had to choose

The joke's on you
The joke's on you

God knows I've tried to be kind
But I won't just lay down and die
Wearing a fake smile
The joke's on you
