Chimaira, Crawl

As I lay this all to rest Shadows appear reminding me Of all things left unsaid by me

Maybe one day you'll believe That I will crawl I will crawl on broken knees

It's beyond what you really need Forcing it all out of you Will I make your life complete Come Clean

Am I the sorrow That you won't reap Am I the secret That you can't keep Well I won't stop Until I'm complete And I won't stop Until you believe I won't stop until you need me
