

Chimaira, Gag (Bonus Track)

After years of endless torture
You try to come back
Likeness of an unwanted child grow
Simplified case of defamation
Left her bleeding thrown out the window
Try to compete the good one

I'll never understand

What the fuck did we ever do
To make you hate
Remain scars of an unwanted child lost
Justified, inebriate
Left me bleeding thrown out the window
Try to compete to be the good one

I'll never understand
20 years of mind rape brings forth my hate
My hate derived from you mother fucker
