Chimaira, Stigmurder

Ever want to commit murder Feel the rush as you kill Looking into dead eyes Collecting their last thoughts Sometimes I feel no remorse Sometimes I want a taste Why am I so different Than those who can just do it

I want to change what I've become But I can't kill the urge But I can't kill the urge You are now mine forever Walk with me one last time You'll walk with me one last time

I feel you embracing You wish it would end I feel life for the first Time I ever have

You cannot fuck with me Like you have in the past This time I will stop you Dead in your fucking tracks Your eyes close away As I feel salvation Now you pray Light, the final vision Your eyes are blank

I want to commit murder
Feel the rush as I kill
Looking into your eyes
Collecting your last thoughts
I never feel remorse
Now I want is taste
I know I'm not different
Then those who can just do it

I want to change what I've become But I can't kill the urge I can't kill the urge You are now mine forever Stigmurder
