

Christina Aguilera, Keep On(Singing My Song)

I woke up this morning with a smile on my face
And nobodys gonna bring me down today
Been feeling like nothings been going my way lately
But I decided right here, right now, that my outlook's guna change
That's why I'm gunna
Say goodbye to all the tears I've cried every time somebody hurt my pride Feelin like they wont let me live life, and take the time to look at what is mine
I see every blessing so clearly, and I thank God for what i got from above

Chorus:

I believe they can take anything from me
But they cant succeed in taking my inner peace from me
They can say all they wanna say about me, but i'm Im gunna carry on, (carry on)
I'mma keep on(keep on) singin my song

La,la,la...etc

I never wanna dwell on the pain again theres no use in relivin how i hurt back then Rememberin to well the hell i felt when i was runnin out of faith
Every step im bout to take well its towards a better day Cause im about to Say farewell to every single lie and all the fears ive held too long inside
Every time i felt i couldnt try all the negativity and strife Cause too long ive been strugglin couldnt go on But now ive found im feelin strong and im moving on

Chorus

Every time i tried to be what they wanted from me
It never came naturally so i ended up in misery Was unable to see the good around me, wasting so much energy on What they thought of me than simply just remembering to breathe ive learned

I'm humanly unable to please everyone at the same time
So now i find my peace of mind living one day at a time In the end i asnwer to one God, comes down to one love till i get to heaven above

I have made the decision never to give in till the day i die no matter what

I'm gonna carry on, i'mma keep on singin my song

Repeat chorus x2
