

Christina Aguilera, Loves Embrace

"people ask if I'm in love with you cause i'm sitting here with your picture and smilin to myself.
I'm kinda lost in my own thoughts of you my heart speaks before my mind thinks through, and I blush as I say yes
What a feelin of vulnerability commin over me and I'm feelin weak and I can't speak.
I can't think never thought I'd give in so willingly to a human being with abilities to set me free, let me be me makes me wanna say
Your lips, your eyes, your kiss
I must admit its a part of me.
You please me, complete me, fillin me like a melody.
Your soul, your flow, your youth, your truth is simply proof we were meant to be.
But the best quality thats hookin me
is that you're lovin me for me
is that you're lovin me for me"
