

Christina Aguilera, Memories

When was the last time you called me on the phone?
said you love me and said you needed me when was it? oh baby
It was yesterday that i could hide in your arms you spoke those those lovely words that you want me was that true? i wanna know

Chorus:

I never knew a love so true so pure so innocent But all i have left is sadness and misery Those fond memories have left me stripped and I'm in agony So why you do this to me?
It seems like i've trusted you Broken and torn are my heart when i finally see you and her staying around that corner whispers of love have left me so alone did you truly love me?
just the other day i saw another her she n you in a bus sharing every pleasant thing in the world i was so emotional i wanted to see you so much but now it seems that all is gone i guess i must move on

Chorus

How can a boy like you act like a man? come back my darlin' and i'll gif u all the happiness i love you
you know its true come back please come back...
