Christina Aguilera, My Destiny

What if I never knew What if I never found you I'd never had this feeling In my heart How did this come to be I don't know how you found me But from the moment I saw you Deep inside my heart I knew Baby, you're my destiny You and I were meant to be With all my heart and soul I give my love to have and hold And as far as I can see You were always meant to be My destiny I wanted someone like you Someone that I could hold onto And give my love Until the end of time But forever was just a word Something I'd only heard about But now you're always there for me When you say forever I'll believe Baby, you're my destiny You and I were meant to be With all my heart and soul I give my love to have and hold And as far as I can see You were always meant to be My destiny Maybe all we need Is just a little faith. Cause baby, i believe That love will find a way. Oh baby, you're my destiny You and I were meant to be I give my love to have and hold And as far as I can see You were always meant to be My destiny
