

Christina Aguilera, Naughty Girl

It's after 12, can't face the day yet
Reminds me how hard it can be to forget
I said things I didn't mean
You saw things you shouldn't see

Chorus 1:

Been a naughty Girl, realbad so-and-so
Done to many things a girl shouldn't know
I swear, I never knew i could hurt you so
One too many things a girl shouldn't know
Can't take the sadness from your eyes
Can't put the truth back in my lies
Don't make me try and explain
Lets just start over over again

Repeat Chorus 1

Chorus 2:

The more you try to stay
The more I let you go
For one too many things a girl shouldn't know
I swear i never knew i could hurt you so
One too many things a girl shouldn't know
Won't stop and try to turn the clock back
I won't beg, I'm no good at that
Too late to start and act like a saint
Can't be something that i ain't

Repeat Chorus 1

Repeat Chorus 2

Been a naughty girl
Been a naughty girl.....
