

Christina Aguilera, The Last Goodbye (El ultimo a

The calm broke
And the silence became noise
They were stripped
Our image and our pain
The sky mixed
Together with the street and the animosity
Filled us with fear
Where love was
Tell me if the pain awakens the soul
Tell me if it is able to awaken the heart
Neither all the animosity, nor the revenge
Is going to be able to calm the desires
Of seeing those faces again
Tell me if the pain opens a door
Tell me if it is able to awaken the heart
Consider your Lord who you want
Who was going to think
That morning was the last goodbye
Nobody will change us
Nobody will make us lose our faith
Nobody will silence us
Our strength will return again
Today I feel free
And we are united by love
Today everything has changed
I believe more in you
Lord
Tell me if the pain awakens the soul
ell me if it is able to awaken the heart
Neither all the animosity, nor the revenge
Is going to be able to calm the desires
Of seeing those faces again
Ohh oh, tell me
Tell me if the pain awakens the soul
Tell me if it is able to awaken the heart
Neither all the animosity, nor the revenge (oh yeah)
Is going to be able to calm the desires
Of seeing those faces again
Tell me if the pain opens a door
Tell me if it is able to awaken the heart
(To awaken the heart)
Consider your Lord who you want
Who was going to think
Who was going to think
That morning was the last goodbye
